

Noise analysis and abatement design

Description

Noise analysis identifies areas of potential noise impacts and evaluates potential noise mitigation measures.

Typical services

Project deliverables may include the following:

- Completed noise analysis and abatement design (preliminary or final).
- Input and output files from a federal or state approved noise model, which includes current measured and calculated projected noise levels. Additional mitigation documentation may include location, wall height, alignment, detail drawings, profiles, and cost estimates.

Published: May 2024